Information Bulletin-English
April 3, 2017

Pastors/Principals/Administrators: below are current diocesan announcements and events. Please include as appropriate in your parish and school bulletins:

General Announcements

1. Catholics Can Award – Nominations are now being accepted for the Diocese of Salt Lake City's Catholics Can Award by the Diocesan Commission for People with Disabilities. This annual award is given to an individual, parish or organization which ensures meaningful participation by people with disabilities in Catholic Parish life. To obtain the nomination packet and to nominate someone, please contact Carol Ruddell at (801)440-8729 or Dolores Lopez at (801) 328-8641. Nominations are due by June 1, 2017.

2. Artists wanted - From May 16 to June 13, 2017, the Catholic Diocese of Salt Lake City, Commission for People with Disabilities, is hosting the "St. Dymphna Art Exhibition". This exhibition will feature artists who live with a mental illness, and those who support them in their journeys. This exhibit is in observance of the feast of St. Dymphna, patron saint to individuals with mental illness. The goal of this exhibit is to highlight the gifts these artists bring to the community, and to combat the stigma of psychiatric disabilities. Artists interested in participating in this juried exhibit should contact Jacque Smite at (801) 214-4237. Deadline for submissions is April 22.

3. Diocesan Music Festival: Musicians and public alike are invited to attend the Diocesan Music Festival on Saturday, April 29, 2017, 1– 3 p.m., St. John the Baptist Parish in Draper. The Festival will include performances by choirs and musicians from around the diocese. For more information, contact the Office of Liturgy at 801-328-8641 x363. Admission is free.
